AQUEDUCT'S GOOD OPENING

GREAT ATTENDANCE AND CAPITAL RACING MARKS THE FIRST DAY.

Brookdale Nymph Triumphs in the Aqueduct Handicap—King Cobalt Wins Creedmoor Stakes—Nealon Beaten.

New York, November 2.—As far as the buildings were concerned it was practically a new Aqueduct that waited for the race-goers today. Everything had been changed, and for the better. The course now takes its place as one of the most up-to-date in the Jockey Club circuit. The grandstand has been entirely refurnished since the spring meeting, painted from top to bottom, and in place of the chairs that were formerly in were long rows of comfortable benches placed wide enough apart to afford easy ingress and egress for the race-goers. In the betting ring, however, the greatest changes had been made. The former cramped quarters have given way to a great asphalt floored space, finely lighted and most acceptably adapted to the uses of the bettors.

This was the opening day of the final meeting of the year, and though rainy weather helped to keep the attendance down, there were at least 15,000 persons present when the first race was called. A very good program was offered, including the Aqueduct Handicap and the Creedmoor Stakes. The handicap field was especially good, and included Nealon, the champion long-distance runner of the year.

The fashionable element of turf devotees was out in force, and the pretty little clubhouse had a very representative crowd, that included many of the well-known owners. It was the largest gathering of the kind in some weeks. A driving rain was falling when the advance guard of the visitors of the day appeared, but it stopped half an hour before the first race.

Brookdale Nymph, the favorite Meddler filly from Harry Payne Whitney's barn, won the Aqueduct Handicap in decisive fashion. Nobody wanted any part of her, which caused her price to soar to 8 to 1 with but few takers. She led a grand field all the way with supreme ease. Nealon was well backed by the talent and put forth a gallant, but unequalled effort, the weight and distance being dead against him right on top of his recent brilliant campaign over cup distances.

King Cobalt, the added starter, captured the Creedmoor in runaway fashion, the crack Spooner not being dangerous at any stage of the journey.

Okenite was always an odds-on favorite for the first race, but was easily beaten out by the consistent, but heretofore decidedly unlucky Kilter. This colt has been fighting out the finishes of a number of races recently and always runs well, but until today has only been able to finish second or third. Okenite ran well, but had all he could do to defeat Lord Stanhope for second money, the latter being only a head before the improving Vestabella.

Scratching reduced the field of the second race to four. McCarter opened the favorite, but was displaced by Welbourne because of the hearty and persistent backing awarded the latter. When it came to the running it was soon demonstrated that first impressions had been best. McCarter went right out into the lead with a rush and, leading throughout, won cantering, as such a good colt should have done. Welbourne ran a good race and held second place safe, but had no chance against the winner. Chantilly ran peculiarly, moving up and back, but was going fast at the finish.

The Creedmoor Stakes fell to the added starter, King Cobalt, in fast time. Spooner, as he should have been on public form, was a decided favorite, but King Cobalt is a greatly improved colt and won all the way, with Berry Maid always his nearest attendant. Spooner seemed sluggish, but ran gamely and held on in third place through the last quarter.

The tabled history of the Creedmoor Stakes is as follows:

Year.	Winner.	Wt.	Jockey.	Val.	Time.
1902	Nevermore	112	Lyne	$1,320	1:10
1903	Juvenal Maxim	116	Fuller	1,285	1:14
1904	Pirate Polly	104	H. Phillips	1,220	1:14
1905	Jacobite	124	J. Jones	1,600	1:13
1906	Barbary Belle	90	Horner	1,590	59
1907	King Cobalt	117	E. Dugan	1,555	1:00

Run at 5 1/2 furlongs in 1902, then at 3 1/2 miles until 1906.

The Aqueduct Handicap was contested by a field of crack racers, but was not a closely contested race. Brookdale Nymph running into the lead quickly and winning all the way without ever being closely approached, or under pressure. This fine mare is in grand form at present, and probably the best of her sex now in training. Monfort came through the stretch with a remarkable burst of speed and nipped Gretna Green out of second money in the last stride. Nealon was a mild favorite, but in view of his heavy impost the soft going was detrimental to his chances, and after appearing dangerous at the head of the stretch he fell back and was eased up when clearly beaten. Faust ran in decidedly different form from that he showed when he defeated Gretna Green for the Southampton Handicap at Jamaica.

The condensed history of the Aqueduct Handicap is given below:

Year.	Winner.	A. Wt.	Jockey.	Val.	Time.
1902	Glenwater	117	McInerney	$1,060	1:48
1903	Wild Thyme	98	Redfern	2,705	1:49
1904	Israelite	114	Shilling	2,750	1:49
1905	Bedouin	102	O'Neill	3,315	1:46
1906	Rye	102	Finn	3,025	1:46
1907	B'dale Nymph	116	Notter	2,760	1:47

A surprise party was sprung on the speculators

AN ALLEGED CHAMPION GOLD BRICK.

P. J. RAINES DE MUND, CH. C, 3, BY GOLDFINCH—GRACIOSITY.

De Mund does not figure among the top-notch three-year-olds of 1907, but no young horse of the last two years has acquired more notoriety or filled more space in newspapers. This is because a wealthy young man, in gathering a stable of racers, gave a price for him that was not justified by his subsequent performances and led to the colt being dubbed the champion gold brick of racing, a reputation really not deserved. He is a colt of remarkable speed, but apparently not a stayer. That is not uncommon and De Mund may yet win fame as a champion sprinter. In fact, since his owner is a hearty bettor, for all that anybody knows to the contrary, De Mund may have already repaid the $45,000 he cost Mr. Rainey.

His first start last year was in a purse race at Aqueduct. It was a half mile dash and De Mund won cantering by five lengths in 47 $\frac{1}{2}$ , with Campaigner second and Shackle third. Here he beat nothing of any account, but fully justified reports current concerning the almost unheard of speed he had been showing in his work. He ran in the name of Newton Bennington. Before starting again he was sold to Paul J. Rainey for the reported price of \$45,000. His first start for the latter was in the Juvenile Stakes at Belmont Park, May 12. He won off by himself six lengths before George S. Davis, with The Wrestler third. His next start was for the Expectation Stakes at Gravesend. He was a 1 to 2 favorite, but Superman beat him by a length. Senator Clay was third. His next essay was in the National Stallion Stakes at Belmont Park. Again he was an odds-on favorite, starting at 7 to 10, but this time only ran third to Charles Edward and Superman and at once declined violently in public estimation. He was then retired and not started again until in August at the Saratoga meeting, where he ran unplaced in the Saratoga Special, second to Yankee Gun in a purse race and won the United States Hotel Stakes from Arcite, Vox Populi and seven more. This revived confidence in him considerably and he was one of the well backed choices for the Futurity. He had up 123 pounds and ran third to Electioneer, 117, and Jope Joan, 116, with Peter Pan, Ballot and other cracks behind him. This was a good performance and when in his next race he defeated Ballot, Dime Ken, Electioneer, Oran, Fountainblue and two more in the Flatbush Stakes, at seven furlongs in 1:25 $\frac{1}{2}$ , he seemed to have regained his early spring form and was again voted a grand colt. He had up 120 pounds to Ballot's 115 and beat the latter four lengths in a canter and was at 12 to 1 in the betting. Then, with 127 pounds up, he ran unplaced in the Great Eastern Handicap, won by Sewell, carrying 108. He ran twice more and was second to Salvidore for the Junior Champion Stakes at Gravesend and second to Electioneer for the Produce Stakes at Brighton Beach.

This year De Mund was beaten in his early races and did not win until August 8, at Saratoga, where he defeated Jack Atkin, Sewell and three more, at three-quarters in 1:11 $\frac{1}{2}$ , with 122 pounds up, a capital sprinting performance. His next success was at Saratoga, August 17, when, over a slow track, he beat Fleming, Okenite and three others, at three-quarters in 1:14, for another purse. He had up 123 pounds to 95 on Fleming and 111 on Okenite. His next race was for the Fall Handicap at Sheepshead Bay. He carried 122 pounds and won from Ben Ban, 99; Brookdale Nymph, 119; Court Dress, 110; Keator, 105; Sewell, 117, and four more, running the three-quarters in 1:13 $\frac{1}{2}$ . A purse race over the "about" three-quarters course at Gravesend, September 18, was his last successful effort, he having up 126 pounds and winning easily from Chief Hayes, 95; Number One, 88; Keator, 107; Prince Hamburg, 115, and two more, in 1:10 $\frac{1}{2}$ . He has been in retirement for some time and it will not be at all surprising if he makes a great record next year in short distance races. His record is as follows:

Year.	Sts.	1st.	2nd.	3rd.	Unp.	Amt. won.
1906	12	4	4	2	2	$28,600
1907	10	4	0	2	4	5,100
Totals	22	8	4	4	6	$33,700

in the fifth race when Monacador, after having been backed from 10 to 1 down to 7 to 1, ran into the lead directly after the start and, making every post a winning one, finally pulled up a cantering winner away off by himself. Pretension, showing something of his old-time form, ran a good race here, and in a hot finish outstayed Quinn Brady for second place. St. Valentine was the favorite, but fourth was the best he could do.

Maiden two-year-olds of a poor class contested the last race of the day and Hessian, a long overdue impostor, finally won a race. Bolando, another disappointing one, defeating Monocle in a close finish for second place.

Some of the spectators disagreed with the placings of the second and third horses, Okenite and Lord Stanhope, in the first race. The last named was thought by them to have been second by a good neck on the inside, but they were mistaken.

Jockey Buxton left for Oakland tonight to ride Sugarmaid in the Opening Handicap.

Barney Schreiber is in New York on a flying trip this afternoon. The Missouri turfman will go hence tomorrow night to California via St. Louis and Woodlands.

TWO MARES FOR WEST INDIES.

New York, November 2.—Goodwin Brothers have purchased at private sale the three-year-old chestnut filly Ruth Howard, by Pessara—Nellie Mack and the five-year-old bay mare Pancreatis, by Aloha—Panway, for export to Trinidad, West Indies, where they will probably be put in the stud after some racing. Pancreatis first raced as a two-year-old, making twenty-three starts, but only won two of them; the mare won three races out of twenty-four starts as a three-year-old, but did not win a race out of twelve starts as a four-year-old and did not race this year. Ruth Howard did not race as a two-year-old and has made six starts this year, but was never in the money.

NOT EXPECTING HOSTILE LAWS.

Lexington, Ky., November 2.—Edward Corrigan, before leaving for Chicago tonight, said that talk of action against racing at a special session of the Louisiana legislature is idle. "The governor's call," said he, "makes no mention of racing." Concerning the report that the eastern style of betting will be in vogue at the New Orleans tracks next winter, he said: "There is no necessity for such a change, and I do not believe it good practice to bid the devil good day until you meet him."

GETAWAY DAY AT LATONIA

LONG SHOTS TAKE FIRST FOUR RACES IN EASY FASHION.

Little Lighter Wins Handicap from The Minks—Pinkola Captures Another Purse

—Paul Ruinart Pulls Up Lame.

Cincinnati, O., November 2.—On account of the track, getaway day developed a more than usual quota of beaten favorites and successful horses at profitable quotations. The weather was a repetition of that of yesterday, cold and rainy, while the track was deep in sloppy mud. The form of the day's racing should be thrown out, as both horses and jockeys were blinded by mud, and unless a good horse was able to go right to the front at barrier rise he had no chance to get home ahead of his opponents. That unfavorable weather continued to be regretted, as the card was one of the best of the meeting, and with a fast track the contests would have been keen and interesting from start to finish.

Harvey Myers, the general manager of the Latonia Jockey Club, stated that the meeting was financially successful and satisfactory, and that prospects for the future were not so bad as some persons would make it appear. The stakes and purses next year will be of generous proportions, and a good many track improvements are contemplated. Secretary John Dillon corroborated Mr. Myers' statements, and added that he thought the racing had been as clean and free from discordant features as that held at any other point in the country this season.

An average of nineteen books was on during the meeting. A majority of these broke about even or lost, some of them heavily. Fontelle probably won more money than any of the others. Fred Cook was a close second. Of the players from the ground, J. W. Gorman, who recently purchased Miss Sain, is probably $60,000 winner, conservatively. Henry Allen, the Arkansas planter and cotton broker, is the biggest loser. Mr. Allen's deficit on his transactions here will amount to no less than $25,000.

The mile handicap, for which Colonel Jack was best fancied, went to Little Lighter, which fairly reveled in the going. Bad riding caused Colonel Jack to finish outside the placed horses.

The closing race at two miles was a farce as a spectacle, but endurance counted for much and Waterlake gained the decision. Paul Ruinart, at a long price, surprised the majority of operators. On arrival at the stable, Paul Ruinart developed lameness and is apparently broken down.

Communipaw had an easy time of it in the second to dispose of his opponents. After the finish an officer furnished excitement by attaching the horse for a $100 debt. It was promptly paid. Pinkola and Ed Kane, coupled as the Fizer entry, had the fifth between them and finished in the order named. The poor showing of Ketchemike in the race was sharply commended on.

Mud blinded jockey Dearborn so badly in the opening race that he steered Jayanese into the inner rail on three occasions during the stretch run. Dearborn sustained an injury that will keep him out of the saddle for some time.

Carew is reported ailing badly and C. T. Patterson will defer shipping his string for some time. There are any number of horses on the ailing list, sufferers from influenza.

W. O. Joplin will send his string of racers next Wednesday to New Orleans. Jockey Koerner will accompany the stable and do most of the riding.

About nine o'clock last night burglars broke into the track feed store, which is managed by Henry Reilly, blew open the safe and extracted about $500 in cash. They next entered the store of the Latonia Standard Hay and Grain Company nearby, blew the safe open and got away with $50 in cash. The matter is in the hands of the Latonia police, but so far no trace has been secured of the intruders.

HORSES TO WINTER AT HYNES' FARM.

New York, November 2.—A number of the smartest two-year-olds of the year will be entrusted for the winter to the hands of that veteran trainer, John Hynes, at his nursery farm near Stamford, Conn. W. B. Jennings, who for several years past has wintered some of his horses with Hynes, will winter the two fillies he left with T. Welsh upon his departure for California, Julia Powel and Miss Norfolk, at Stamford. Royal Vane, the Royal Flush—Flavane colt owned by John W. Gates, but raced in the name of C. E. Durnell, will also winter there. Royal Vane won both the Atlantic and Pansy Stakes, but fell lame in the Montauk Stakes at Brighton Beach July 24, in which he was an added starter and beaten a head by Fair Play and only started once since. Denny Sullivan's Little Greenan gelding, Rye, which was trained by Hynes after his return to New York from a health seeking sojourn in the Adirondacks last summer, has been taken to the farm and will be rejuvenated by Hynes for an early spring campaign.

HOW STRODE GOT GEORGE BAILEY.

Cincinnati, O., November 2.—Fred Cook won quite a sum on George Bailey Friday, having a good-sized wager on him out of town. He gave the horse to J. U. Strode, with the understanding that if he was ever able to win a race Strode was to inform him. Strode told Cook early Friday morning that the colt had a good chance if the track was not too stiff. It began to rain again just as the horses went to the post, and that helped the nag a good deal.

DISQUALIFICATION AT BALTIMORE.

Notre Knip Is Set Back in Steeplechase for Fouling Lord Badge.

Baltimore, Md., November 2.—Racing was carried on at Pimlico this afternoon under most discouraging conditions. A cold, driving rain fell all the while, sending everybody to cover and for a part of the time a heavy fog settled down, shutting out all view of the races except at the finish. The track was a sea of slop. The Pimlico Autumn Steeplechase and the Carrollton Cup for gentlemen riders were the features of a good card. The Cup brought out the pick of the gentlemen riders of this section and created much interest. Unfortunately, however, the event was marred by a disqualification. When the barrier went up in this race, Herman Johnson went to the front and held on to the stretch. Here Mr. Taylor brought Notre Knip up and took the lead and, at the sixteenth post Lord Badge challenged, and when Mr. Taylor went to the whip, Notre Knip swerved over in front of Lord Badge. Foul was claimed and allowed.

The steeplechase furnished a fine race through the field. In the last turn of the field Bersi went to the front and, sailing along, struck the flat in the lead. Here Henderson brought up Navajo up and, after a little urging, he shook off Bersi and came home an easy winner. Bob Murphy, the tip, was always outrun. Guardian II ran a good race, but the distance proved too far for him.

In the Eutaw House Handicap, El Dorado found the going partly to his liking, and splashed along in front all the way. Botanist, who is in good form just at present, found a soft spot in the first race and won with plenty in reserve. The Smithson following attempted to pull off another good thing with Neoskalacta in the last race. The filly ran an excellent race, but Lally under the conditions was too good for her.

HORACE EGBERT AT WORK AGAIN.

Gossip of the Stables and Men Who Are at Oakland, Cal.

Oakland, Cal., October 29.—Judge Horace E. Egbert was at the track today for the first time since his return from Seattle. He said he had just received a letter from Barney Schreiber stating that he expected to spend a good part of the coming winter at Oakland, and would have a good-sized stable here in charge of Dave Henry. A section in Millionaire Row will be occupied by the horses.

Sam Hildreth and his trainer, John Lowe, are putting the horses shipped from New York through their walking paces to wear off the staleness of shipping. Hildreth has made 130 nominations to twenty-one stakes and his colors will be seen on the track nearly every day of the meeting. R. F. Carman has made 110 entries to stakes and W. B. Jennings has also made a large number.

Trainer Buxton, of the Fleur de Lis Stable, has returned from New York, where he spent several months, going there from Seattle at the close of the meeting there. He says his young brother, Jockey M. Buxton, did remarkably well in the east and has grown considerably since going there. W. Cahill made all of the engagements for the boy. The youngster will return to Oakland after the close of Aqueduct.

Superintendent Grant closed the big track yesterday on account of the heavy rains and horsemen were obliged to use the inside track for their workouts.

The W. O'B. Macdonough horses have been removed from the private stable at Golden Gate Park to stalls at the track, where H. M. Mason will be better able to fit them for racing.

The horsemen here have been complaining about the increased cost of hay and oats, the impossibility of getting straw and stalls, but they are now confronted with a raise in the price of plating their horses. The horse-shoers have entered into an agreement to raise the price of putting plates on a horse from $2.50 to $3.00, which will incur a considerable additional outlay in getting the horses ready for racing. Some of the owners are threatening to do their own plating, but this would be out of the question with all of the larger stables.

James Blute, trainer of the Carman string, was an interested spectator when Uncle and Meelick made their first appearance on the track. Blute says it will be hard to distinguish between them with colors up.

J. S. Hawkins arrived with his horses from Latonia and in the same car came six owned by J. D. Stevens. The best horses in the Hawkins string are Wing Ting, Overland and Manchester. The two-year-old Cloyne is probably the best horse Stevens will have here.

A. W. Ream has turned out his filly, Forest Rose. Doctor Rowell will be the only horse he will race at Oakland this winter.

Dr. Leggo is going sound these days and he has been entered in the three big distance events of the meeting, the Burns Handicap, the Waterhouse Cup and the Thornton Stakes. The old horse could not be got ready for the Opening Handicap and other early events. If he should happen to win the Burns Handicap it would be his second victory in the $10,000 fixture, as he won it in 1905 in the record time for the event, 2:05. The year before Dr. Leggo won the California and also the Los Angeles Derby and last year he captured the Christmas Handicap.

Red Leaf has been doing so well the Keene brothers have entered her in several of the stakes. The Keenes have made entries to most of the fixtures, but Boas, which at one time gave promise of proving a good horse, has not been named for the Derby. This colt was quite sick for a time, but is all right again.

President Williams made his first visit to the track since his return today and expressed himself as well pleased with the condition in which he found things.

TURNEY BROS.' RACING YOUNGSTERS.

Hannarinda Priced to the Kingston Stud at a High Figure.

Lexington, Ky., November 2.—Turney Brothers, the Bourbon County turfmen, will race in the east six two-year-olds in 1908, as follows:

Brown filly, by Dick Welles—Feronia.

Chestnut colt, by Knight of the Thistle—Apology, by St. Blaise.

Bay colt, by Flambeau—Lady Ayr, by Ayrshire.

Bay colt, by Knight of the Thistle—Clairette, by Caledonias.

Bay colt, by Solitaire II.—Corinne, by Sheen. Chestnut filly, by Knight of the Thistle—The Lady in Blue, by Himyar.

The Dick Welles—Feronia filly is home-raised.

J. W. Sayre has priced his Hanover mare Hannarinda at $10,000 to C. W. Hill, manager of King's Stud. Hannarinda is the dam of Arsenal, a Metropolitan Handicap winner and is bred very much in the fashion of today, tracing on the dam side to the famous Levity.

There will be but one two-year-old in training the coming season by Belvidere, the sire of Salvidere. The youngster is a brown colt out of Lucca, by Hawkstone and is in F. W. Doss' stable. Commando, the sire of Colin and Peter Pan, will also have out in 1908 but one two-year-old, a chestnut colt out of Running Stream.

J. C. Milan, in his successful racing campaign this year, has won with five performers, the get of the young horse Contester, namely: Convolo, Belle Scott, Jim Simpson, Bess Ward and Lucille D. Contester was brought to Kentucky by Ed Frazer, who bought the son of Galore, in Maryland, of the late trainer and turfman, R. W. Walden.

The yearlings owned by Phil C. Chin will be shipped to California in the next few days and raced in the early two-year-old events in 1908 at Oakland. There are some twelve or fifteen head in this collection. Some of them were purchased out of the eastern sales, while others were bred by Colonel Jack Chin at the Leonatus Stock Farm.

Fletcher Driver is preparing eleven yearlings at Walnut Hall Stock Farm for winter racing in California and the youngsters will be shipped west whenever owner T. H. Stevens issues orders to that effect. They are by Wadsworth, Alloway and Monseur de L'Orme.

Autumn Winds, a two-year-old chestnut filly, by Prince of Monaco, out of Middlemarch, by Bille, is being fitted by Riley Brothers for racing at New Orleans the coming winter. This firm will send to the south this season Joe Shields, now racing at Latonia and two coming two-year-old fillies, one by Handsel and the other by Box, which, as yearlings, worked fast.

NORFOLK A FINANCIAL FROST.

Lexington, Ky., November 2.—Wayne Lewis was at Norfolk with the string of G. W. J. Bissell, and went from there to Louisville in the expectation that a meeting would be held at Churchill Downs. When the dates were transferred to Latonia, however, Lady Baldur, the best horse in the stable, was sick and is just now recovering. She is still coughing a little.

The people of Louisville have in this experience come to a realization of what a race meeting means to them," said Mr. Lewis on his arrival at the local track Friday. "They now know what they have lost through Sheriff Bullitt's misguided political move, and it is well for that gentleman that he is not running for office at the election to be held Tuesday next. He retires on that date, and I'm thinking that we will not soon hear of his resurrection.

"The Norfolk meeting was a financial frost. I was told that the people who backed it lost $30,000, exclusive of the original investment in building the track. This, however, is hardly to be considered a loss. The plant is a beautiful one and in time I believe it can be made a paying proposition. The people need education to racing. This will come in time with better management. I expect to see considerable racing in Virginia the next two years."

THOROUGHBREDS FOR MEXICO.

L. Blum has purchased a number of horses since his return from Europe for shipment to Mexico at Latonia and will try and pick up some more at the Lexington fall sales. The horses which he secured at Latonia are as follows:

Blouse, b. f. 3, by Brantome—Ada Long. Kleinwood, ch. b. 6, by Hermence—Mandolin II. Bob Augustine, ch. c. 3, by Russell—Dolly Wag-

Russell Sage, b. g. 6, by Russell—Derelict. Princess Sue, b. f. 2, by Bendoran—Palustre. Rothgeb, b. c. 3, by Toddington—Roselaw. The Golden Bird, ch. f. 3, by First Mate—Amy Robsart.

Consideration, b. g. 6, by Watercress—Pensa. Pierrot, b. c. 3, by Disguise—Pretty Maiden. J. K. F., br. c. 4, by Tarcoola—Queen Alta. Albert Fir, ch. h. 5, by Albert—Balsam Fir. Kenton, br. h. 5, by G. W. Johnson—Mabel Martin.

Limerick, b. h. 5, by Albert—Duchess May. Puisatilla, b. g. 4, by Merry Prince—Catechism. Merry Pioneer, b. g. 6, by Blazes—Merrywise. Family Talk, ch. f. 3, by Knight of the Thistle—Takanassee.

Bamboo, b. c. 2, by Brantome—Francisca. Plaud, b. g. 3, by Plaud—Miss Fry. Petoskey, ch. c. 3, by Onondaga—Henrietta.

DURNELL'S FIRST CALL ON DUGAN.

The report that R. T. Wilson, Jr., had signed Durnell's lightweight jockey, E. Dugan, for next year is denied by Durnell. In making the denial Durnell says that Mr. Wilson has purchased second call on the boy from him for $7,000, but he will retain first call himself for next year and make Dugan's engagements as he has done this year. No one has made any arrangements with him for third call on the boy, says Durnell, but he is willing to fill out the book with a first-class stable.

Dugan's contract was purchased from Lester Lee & Son by Barney Schreiber and Durnell at Oakland last spring for $5,000, and his apprentice allowance does not expire until the middle of next month. It has since been reported that Durnell purchased Schreiber's interest in the contract last summer for $7,000. With Walter Miller rapidly increasing in weight, Dugan will likely be the leading lightweight of next year. Dugan is now close to the top of the list of winning jockeys and a close second to Miller in popularity as a skillful rider. He can ride at ninety pounds and is not yet out of his teens.

THE ARROWED FOR LOS ANGELES.

Lexington, Ky., November 2.—The Arrowed, the English horse owned by Mr. McCracken, of Manitoba, was turned over to J. E. Cushing today and will be taken to Los Angeles. Joe Hawkins took The Arrowed when he came out of the stud at Sunny Slope farm this fall and it was his intention to race him at Oakland, but when he got to Latonia, he savaged a buggy horse and Hawkins was afraid to make the journey across the country with him. The Arrowed was sent back here from Latonia about a week ago. He has been entered in all of the long distance stakes for both meetings in California.

Jim Patterson has arrived here from New York with six yearlings belonging to "Reddy" Marshall, the Pittsburgh lawyer. He will go to Los Angeles about November 20.

DEATH OF A FAMOUS IRISH SIRE.

Hackler, the sire of Hackler's Pride, and one of the best sires in Ireland, died October 22 at the Hartstown Stud Farm, Clonsilla, County Dublin, Hackler, owned by James Daly, was twenty years old, and Petrarch, out of the Cambridgeshire winner, Hackness. As a sire of flat racers he earned much fame through his daughter, Hackler's Pride, heroine of the Cambridgeshire in two successive years, St. Brendan, Fllassier and others, and he also came in for much distinction as a sire of jumpers, among them Fanciful, Covert Hack, Duke of Wellington, Dodragh, Castle Knock, Hack Watch and Conari.

ED BRADLEY'S KENTUCKY PLANS.

How and Why Idle Hour Stock Farm Came To Be Incorporated.

The incorporation of the Idle Hour Stock Farm means much more than was told in the dispatches announcing the filing of articles at Lexington, Ky., last Tuesday. It is the first step in the formulation of some ambitious plans for further pleasure and profit in the breeding and racing of thoroughbred horses by E. R. Bradley, of Chicago. As is well known here, Mr. Bradley is the owner of the Del Prado Hotel, is the backer of a big clothing establishment, has profitable interests in the great winter resort, Palm Beach, Florida, makes a book when he is in the mood, owns a string of racers trained by J. Hurley and quartered, when they are in the east, in a neat stable adjoining the Haggins establishment on Avenue U, at Sheepshead Bay, where, during the racing season, he also maintains a luxurious cottage.

Something over two years ago Mr. Bradley was chattering with a man named Turner, in whom he has much confidence and whom he has lately backed in a profitable mining venture in the west. Mr. Turner had been to Kentucky and had paid a visit to the farm of Colonel W. L. Simmons, on which is the grave of the noted trotter, George Wilkes. Turner, after describing the farm to Bradley, mentioned that he had been told that it could be bought or leased. Turner, it appears, was especially impressed with the water he had drunk from a never failing spring—a feeder for the creek that runs through the farm. Bradley, after hearing Turner's description of the place, said to him that if it was as delightful a spot as he had pictured, he should buy or lease it.

"What would I do with it?" asked Turner.

"Raise race horses on it," replied Bradley.

"Why don't you?" asked Turner.

"By golly, I will," replied Bradley, and forthwith when they began to more seriously consider the matter, with the result that Bradley, after a visit to Lexington, leased the property for five years with the privilege of buying it within that time at a price somewhat over $50,000. He remodeled and elaborately furnished the old mansion, reconstructed the old barns, improved the fences, blasted out the rock in the hillside from which flows the spring water, built there a large concrete pool from which wholesome water is piped over the 350 acres to barns and paddocks. He named the place Idle Hour Stock Farm, because he had leased it as the result of a chat in an idle hour and because he had found in it a haven of rest and recreation between his busy seasons.

He collected a band of about thirty well-bred mares and put the farm in charge of William Baker, of New York, with "Doc" Leigh, brother of Eugene Leigh and the one-time owner of old Horse Shoe Tobacco, as his aid. The two year-olds that he raced this spring were broken and trained over the three-quarters mile track on the farm by Leigh and turned over to trainer Hurley at racing time. The stallion Holstein was bought with the idea of making him the master of the court, but death overtook him before he had a chance to add to the profit and glory of Idle Hour.

After a month at the farm last spring, Mr. Bradley found that his health had so greatly improved and that Mrs. Bradley was delighted with the surroundings to the extent that he decided to close his option on the property. He had invited Thomas F. Dolan, Lexington, owner of Jean Bereaud and a small band of good mares, to spend a portion of the summer with him in the cottage at Sheepshead Bay and there he unfolded to Dolan and his brother, John R. Bradley, of New York, his notions about buying the place and expanding as a breeder. The result of this talk was the idea to incorporate the Idle Hour Stock Farm with a capital of $50,000, divided into 500 shares of $100 each, E. R. Bradley taking 400 shares and J. R. Bradley and T. F. Dolan fifty shares each. The life of the corporation began November 1, and, within the next fortnight the purchase of the farm will be paid and the property deeded to the company. E. R. Bradley is to be the president and treasurer, J. R. Bradley the vice-president and Thomas F. Dolan the secretary and general manager. There are adjacent acres that can be added to the farm when needed. Jean Bereaud and the Dolan mares will be transferred to the farm shortly. Contract for the building of a new twenty-two stall training barn has been let and it is to be finished this winter. At the close of the meeting at Aqueduct trainer Hurley will take the string now in the east to Lexington and, after a rest of about a month, will go to New Orleans with such of the older horses and coming two-year-olds as are chosen for winter racing. Trainer Leigh is now handling about twenty yearlings at the farm and they will have their trials when Mr. Bradley and trainer Hurley arrive at Lexington from New York. It is the intention of Mr. Bradley to remain at Lexington for about a month and the probabilities are that he will add to his mares at the sale which is to be held in that city Thanksgiving week. There are now about twenty weanlings at the Idle Hour Farm and last spring a number of the mares were bred to the best stallions in the blue grass region. Tarpeia II, the dam of John Peters, was sent to the court of the great English horse, Rock Sand, and Philistia, the dam of Phil Finch, was mated with the French horse Adam. Both mares are said to be in foal.

SHEEPSHEAD BAY STAKES OPEN.

To close for entries at midnight of Friday, November 15, the Coney Island Jockey Club offers a great list of rich stakes to be run in 1908, 1909 and 1910. They embrace some of the most famous and valuable fixed events of the American turf, and are as follows:

To be run in 1908—

Foam Stakes, two-year-olds, $2,500 added, 5-8 miles.

Surf Stakes, two-year-olds, $2,500 added; 5 1-2 furlongs.

Annual Champion Stakes, three-year-olds and over, $25,000 guaranteed, 2 1-4 miles.

To be run in 1909—

Tidal Stakes, three-year-olds, $20,000 guaranteed; 1 1-4 miles.

Mermaid Stakes, three-year-olds fillies, $3,000 added; 1 1-8 miles.

Lawrence Realization, three-year-olds, $10,000 added; 1 5-8 miles.

Great Filly Stakes, two-year-olds, $5,000 added; 3-4 miles.

To be run in 1910—

Lawrence Realization, three-year-olds (foals of 1907), $10,000 added; 1 5-8 miles.

Of the foregoing stakes all but the Annual Champion and Great Filly Stakes are to be run at the June meetings of their respective years, the latter two being Autumn meeting fixtures.

NEW ORLEANS STAKES TO CLOSE.

In this issue the names, values and conditions of the stakes to be run at the New Orleans meetings of the coming winter are advertised. In all there is an array in combination of thirty-nine stakes with an endowment of $63,250 in added money and guaranteed values, decidedly an attractive prospect to owners who contemplate a campaign of winter racing for their horses. The stakes are those heretofore run at City Park and the Fair Grounds, the innovations being that the stakes for two-year-olds do not have a separate time for closing as heretofore and that the Crescent City Derby and City Park Derby have both been made $10,000 guaranteed races with identical conditions. In the big list of events offered there is sufficient variety to provide well for all ages and classes of horses. The date of closing entries to the City Park Jockey Club's and Crescent City Jockey Club's stakes is the same, Saturday, November 9, and owners who design *Added starter.

Winner—Br. c, by Cesario—Estelle Whitney (trained by A. W. Claxon).

Went to post at 2:59. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won easily; second and third driving. King Cobalt dashed into the lead at the start and won all the way in decisive style and was particularly well served by the soft going. Berry Maid was in nearest pursuit of the winner throughout and finished a very game and fast going second. Spooner was outpaced and under pressure from the start, but finished gamely and probably was handicapped by the going. Whip Top, badly outrun in the early stages, closed up with an unexpected rush at the end. Red Bonnet, a very slow beginner and away badly, closed up slowly, but steadily. Bellwether, outclassed here, quit early. Jubilee Juggins finished well. Aunt Rose ran a bad race.

Scratched—71574 Rialto, 114.

Overweights—Bellwether, 1 pound.

71703 FOURTH RACE—1 1-16 Miles. (50378—1:45—3—99.) Aqueduct Handicap. $2,500 added. All Ages. Net value to winner $2,760.

Time, 1:10.

Winner—Ch. f, by Meddler—Castalia (trained by J. W. Rogers).

Went to post at 2:59. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won handily; second and third driving. Brookdale Nymph at once proceeded to spread eagle her opponents and was never seriously menaced. Monfort, away poor, trailed far in the rear until in the final sixteenth, where he loomed up with a sensational end sprint, getting up in the last stride for second place. Gretna Green, after forward and game pursuit of the winner, tired finally, but ran a grand race. Ben Ban, messed about all the way, was weav- ing in and out through the long stretch, but finished a close fourth and going fast. Far West fell back at the half, but closed up steadily afterwards and is becoming good. Faust, prominent for a mile, tired finally. Nealon, out of place in short races, ran forwardly for a mile but, under pressure, finally tired, ran a splendid race and is in grand form.

Scratched—(70881) Blue Book, 115.

Overweights—Faust, 1 pound; Ben Ban, 2.

71704 FIFTH RACE—1 1-16 Miles. (50378—1:45—3—99.) $700 added. 3-year-olds and upward. Selling. Net value to winner $660.

Winner—Ch. h, by Prince of Monaco—Adora (trained by G. Luckey).

Went to post at 3:24. At post 2 minutes. Start fair. Won handily; second and third driving. Monacodor made the running throughout and won off with ridiculous ease. Pretension ran in forward pursuit throughout and outstayed Quinn Brady for second place in long drive. Quinn Brady ran in nearest and most strenuous attendance on the winner for seven furlongs and tired finally. St. Valentine, badly outrun for the first half, finished well. Andrew Mack held his position and finished well. Flowaway loomed up midway of the stretch and then retired. The winner was entered for $500; no bid.

EASTERN STAKE RACING THIS WEEK.

Ten stake races will be run at Aqueduct in the course of the week beginning tomorrow, the Woodmere Stakes for three-year-olds and over being the first to be run. This is a dash of seven furlongs and will be decided tomorrow afternoon. The names of the probable starters are published today.
Three good stakes will be run off Tuesday, the Bushwick Steeplechase, Babylon Handicap for two-year-olds, and Election Day Handicap for all ages.
The Bushwick is over a jumping course of about two miles, Thistledale, Herculoid, Mr. McCann, Jimmy Lane, Grandpa, Delcanta, Garrett, Dulcian, Sinister, Maximilian, Gus Straus, Judge O'Gin, Ben Shaw and Sunglow showing prominently among the nominations. The Babylon is at three-quarters, Spooner, Royal Tourist, Falada, Running Account,
Restigouche, Nimbus, Halket, Lady Winifred, Live Wire, Dorante, Half Sovereign and Rialto are among the eligibles. The Election Day Handicap is a dash of a mile and an eighth, with many good horses
nominated, the names of Nealon, Ballot, Glorifier, Brookdale Nymph, Tileing, Gretna Green, Gold
Lady, Right Royal, Faust, Blue Book, Miss Crawford, Temaco, Tourenne, McCarter, Cairngorm, Ironsides, Dolly Spanker, Rye, Far West and Bedouin holding out promise of a good race.

The Bellerose Stakes, for two-year-olds, at three-quarters, under selling conditions, is set for decision Wednesday. It has forty-four entries, of which Spooner, The Squire, Single Stone, Frizzette, James
B. Brady, Master Robert, Wave Crest, Arasee, King Cobalt, Chulita, Running Account, Woodlane, Sanguine, Black Mary, Bellwether, Aunt Rose and Tartar Maid have performed creditably. The stake to be run Thursday afternoon is the Bayview Handicap, at seven furlongs, for all ages. In this among others nominated are such fast horses as Faust, Keator, Sewell, Security, Kentucky Beau, Dreamer, Ben Bar, Jacobite, Cressina, Suffrage, Veil, Glorifier, Tileing, McCarter, Spooner, Nealon, Cairngorm, Don Enrique, Rye, Bat Masterson, Baby Wolf, Brookdale Nymph and Dolly Spanker. The Glen Cove Stakes, for three-year-olds, at a mile, will be decided Friday. It is a selling race, and Sewell, Tileing, Don Creole, Momentum, Don Enrique, Adoration, Gild, Flowaway, Conville, Ramrod, Oraculum, Saracinesca and Prince Hampton appear to be the best of its nominations.

Three stake races will be run Saturday, the Queensboro Steeplechase at about two miles and a half, the Oakdale Handicap for two-year-olds at three-quarters of a mile and the Edgemere Stakes for all ages, weight for age, at a mile and an eighth. The Queensboro nominations are practically the same as those to the Bushwick. Among the entries to the Oakdale are such useful two-year-olds as Restigouche, Half Sovereign, Fond Heart, Nimbus, Live Wire, Dorante, Halket, Lady Winifred, Rialto, Chulita, Spooner, Big Chief, Running Account, King Sol, Fancy, Royal Tourist, Beaup-co and Falada. The Edgemere should furnish a good race, Nealon, Ballot, Glorifier, Running Water, Running Account, Brookdale Nymph, Blue Book, Faust, Kentucky Beau, Tourenne, Right Royal, McCarter, Ironsides and Bedouin being among the excellent performers eligible to start on equal terms in the weights.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

The Epsom Derby of 1908 will be run Wednesday,
June 3.

Arthur Redfern, once a crack jockey with a well-remembered protective father, is now chauffeur for "Boots" Durnell.

T. J. Carson reports the death of the yearling bay filly by Ben Strome—Irvana, a full sister to Bensonhurst, Bath Beach and Prospero.

Jockey Mountain is going to get his leg into condition hunting, and will go to J. R. Wainwright's place at Tarpon, Texas, until the racing begins at New Orleans—Cincinnati Enquirer.

The following contingent sales are reported in the Racing Calendar: Franciscan, to T. A. Fullum; Linnepe, to C. Mack; Jennie Wells, to C. Mack;
Willie, to M. Chandler; Tuckernuck, to G. Martin.

It is asserted by the New York Sun that one of the leading bookmakers had surrendered his sheets on all of the races run by Gold Lady this year and that a quiet investigation by the Jockey Club was under way.

There are two tales afloat concerning Sieve Gallion, the one being to the effect that he has got over his cough and the other is that he will probably not be seen under silk again and that he is to leave for Hungary at the beginning of November.—London Sportsman.

Land League, which won the Cambridgeshire at Newmarket last Wednesday, is one of the most consistent of English race horses. In the course of the three seasons he has been on the turf, he has won twenty-two of the thirty races in which he has taken part, and has only once failed to finish in the first three.

With the breaking down of Emperor of India and his retirement, also retires W. A. Stanton as an owner. "Emperor of India was my only connection with the turf as an owner," said Mr. Stanton to James Fitzsimmons when the latter told him of the mishap to the old horse. "I suppose I am now out of it entirely."

ANSWERS TO QUERIES.

[Communications without names and addresses of senders will not be answered or noticed; nor will any answers be sent by mail.]

W. D. M., Chicago. On the face of your statement, the sum due you was $12.75.

W. W., Detroit, Mich. There having been no
Kerr entry, the wager was a draw.

A. W. M., Chicago. The figures to the left of the horse's name is the chart number of its last race and if in brackets indicate that it won.
To the right in their order of succession they give its age, weight to be carried in the race, degree of ability to run well in mud and handicap valuation.
